MEMORANDUM FOR IRAN/CONTRA GENERAL COUNSELS COORDINATING GROUP

FROM: ARTHUR B. CULVAHOUSE, JR. AB
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Information and Testimony Provided to the Congressional Committees

Now that the Iran/Contra hearings have concluded, and the Select Committees begin to draft their report, it would be useful for us to have a sense of how the President's pledge of cooperation with Congress was translated into action. Accordingly, I would appreciate each agency's advising my office as to the number of documents made available to the Select Committees and the number of agency witnesses who were interviewed and/or deposed by the Committees (including former agency employees who testified or were interviewed in connection with their agency responsibilities). In addition, please advise my office of any other significant or unusual materials or cooperation provided in connection with the Iran/Contra investigation.

Thank you very much for your response in this matter and, on behalf of Bill Lytton and myself, congratulations on a job well done throughout the hearings.
